National School Lunch and Breakfast Program
School Year 2018-2019

The Department of Youth Rehabilitation Services is currently participating in the District of Columbia National School Lunch and Breakfast Program. This program complies with the Federal meal pattern and nutrition standards that align with the Dietary Guidelines of America.

The Health Services Administration is committed to assisting in the growth and development of all youths. All detained and committed youths admitted to DYRS facilities will have access to safely prepared nutritious foods that promote optimal physical, cognitive and social growth and development.

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: How to File a Complaint, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:
